By Bertha Hempstead

News has been received of the approaching marriage of Miss Marian Webster and Mr. Travers Ewell, both of North Attleboro, Mass. Miss Webster has been in Topeka a number of times as a guest at the home of Senator and Mrs. Charles Curtis. She was a classmate of Mrs. Corning P. George, formerly Miss Permelia Curtis, in Wellesley college, and was a member of the wedding party of Lieutenant and Mrs. George. She was also in Topeka for several months preceding and following the marriage of Miss Dolly Curtis and Mr. E. E. Gunn. Miss Ewell will go to North Attleboro to be a bridesmaid at Miss Webster's wedding and to attend some of the pre-nuptial affairs given in her honor. She and her father, Senator Charles Curtis, left Monday for the east. Senator Curtis will go direct to Washington, and Miss Curtis will join her parents in Washington after the Ewell-Webster wedding.

Miss Sara Kouns entertained a few guests at an informal o'clock tea this afternoon. Her guests were the women and girls who played golf at the Country club last summer.

Mrs. George Crawford and Mrs. A. A. Rodgers will give a small, informal dancing party Friday afternoon at the Elks hall. The fair will be for Isabelle Crawford and Mary Rodgers, the young daughters of the hostesses.

The following notice of a party in Wichita, is from one of the Wichita papers:

Mrs. Albert Patten of Topeka and half a dozen former Wichita residents who are here visiting were guests of honor at the bridge tea given this afternoon by Mrs. Will H. Stanley at her home on North Lawrence avenue. Those who shared honors during the afternoon were Mrs. Patten, Mrs. Robert Dennis of Chicago, Mrs. D. Benton Golden of Bartlesville, Okla., Mrs. Jesse Harper of New Bend, Ind., Mrs. Frank Holman of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Charles Hyde of Buffalo and Mrs. George T. Walker of Kansas City.

Decorations for the rooms were of yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Stanley was assisted by Mrs. Claude C. Stanley, who poured tea, and by Mrs. Floyd Tifford, Mrs. Marion Wheeler, Mrs. Gilbert Tucker and Mrs. Fred Connor, in the dining room.

There is a family in town that has a number of attractive daughters. The father guards his daughters like a faithful old watch dog, and the mother, thinking her husband's discipline a bit severe, and remembering her own youth, rather aids and abets the girls in their schemes for entertainment. Father insists that the beaus jog on home at 9:30, but Mother turns back the clock. She tells what she considers a rich joke on her husband. As smart-Aleck college chaps had come a-calling on the youngest of the girls, and Father didn't like his looks nor his manners. The next morning he called his daughter to one side and inquired what time the young man had left the evening before. She told him the hour. "I heard the door open," the father said, "and it was a good while before it closed again. Did he kiss you when he left?" Daughter blushing indignantly acknowledged that he did. "How many times?" the cross-examination continued. "Well, Father," flared the girl, "I am making a confession, but I'm not going to brag."

A good looking street costume that was worn by Mrs. John Romadka, of Milwaukee, who has just left for her home, was of bluish purple cloth of loose, diagonal weave, with short skirt and semi-fitted jacket, the skirt of which was made with points at the front and back, and edged with black fur. The hat was a small velvet shape, closely fitting the head, and trimmed with a long bow across the back, tip-tilted at a sharp angle to the crown of the hat. The pleats in the jacket were fastened at the waist line with cloth buttons.

Another smart suit seen on the avenue yesterday was of champagne colored cloth, with jacket of scalloped edge, and trim, short skirt, disclosing a pair of bronze boots. The trimming of the jacket was in moiré silk of bronze color, and the hat was of velvet in champagne and bronze.

For the morning musicale or matinee there is a demi-tailleur of black satin, banded with skunk.

The Children's club had its annual dinner party Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Larimer. The husbands of the members were guests. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Estey, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore, Mr. and Mrs. George Guild, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Daniels, Miss Mary Smith of Somerset, Mich.; Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Vest, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Henderson, Mrs. E. W. Thompson, Mrs. Irene Russell, Mr. and Mrs. John Sergeant, Mr. and Mrs. George Walp, Mrs. Adrian Greene, Mrs. Mary D. Holmes, Mrs. Warren M. Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steele, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Phillips, of Dover, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Larimer.

Mrs. C. Bergson and Mrs. Louis Wulfeubler of Leavenworth will give a reception Tuesday of next week at Mrs. Wulfeubler's home. Mrs. Bergson's sister, Mrs. T. E. Paxton, and Miss Mary Paxton, will go to Leavenworth to be guests at the party.

Central Park school will have an entertainment tonight to be given by the children, who will sing some of the songs they gave at an entertainment while the State Teachers association was meeting in Topeka. Mrs. Frank Whitmore will also sing at the entertainment tonight, giving some of the children's songs that she sang before the Kindergarten Teachers meeting.

Hair Curling Troubles Are Over—Read This!

Girls, have you heard about the newest way to curl the hair? If you have not, by all means, cut out these simple directions and try this wonderful method to-night before you go to bed. Just procure a new tooth brush and a few ounces of plain liquid silmerine from your druggist; apply enough of the liquid with the brush to moisten the hair from root to tip. Tomorrow morning you will be astonished when you find that your hair has dried in such lovely waves and curls they appear altogether natural. Instead of having been artificially acquired, your hair will of course have more "body" and therefore than where the irritating, singeing waving iron is used. It will appear glossier and livelier, for silmerine has proved equally desirable as a dressing for the hair. You'll find it pleasant to see, and it will leave an sticky, greasy or streaky trace.—Advertisement.

IN NORTH TOPEKA

Churches Are Increasing Efforts to Enlarge Membership.

Business Houses Will Be Closed on Thanksgiving Day.

With seven days remaining before the closing of the revival campaign now being waged by all North Topeka churches, strenuous efforts are being exerted by all workers to eclipse any of their previous attempts to swell the membership of their respective churches. Practically every denomination is depending on personal work for results during the closing week. Work of this type, however, has been relied upon to a considerable extent since the opening of the campaign.

A number of churches are co-ordinating the personal work with night services in the churches. Special sermons are being prepared by the ministers and it is believed that when the campaign closes every congregation on the North side will show the effects of the work.

Hunters Return.

William Boast, Charles Carson, Arthur Page and Dan Scott returned Monday morning from Arkansas, where they spent several weeks on a hunting trip. The journey to the Ozark wilds and the return to civilization were made in a cowboy wagon, the men depending at no time during their trip on railway service for transportation.

All members of the party declared that hunting in Arkansas was unusually good and that an unlimited supply of small game could be secured. They sighted several bears, according to their statement, but did not know whether an effort was made to bring any members of the family of bruin down.

Will Observe Thanksgiving.

Practically every business house on the North side will close Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving day. A number of grocers and butchers will keep their places open until shortly before noon so that housewives can have an eleventh hour chance to obtain any portion of the Turkey day dinner that they had forgotten to get before a number of North side grocers will also keep open later than usual Wednesday evening in order to accommodate their trade.

Practically all other business houses will remain closed all day.

Busy Week for Baptists.

The closing week of the evangelistic campaign was started off with a rush Sunday afternoon by members of the North Topeka Baptist church. More than seventy persons were visited during the afternoon by committees from the church. Reports were made by the workers following the regular services Sunday night.

The Rev. W. G. Hadley, pastor of the church, has announced the following subjects for the first four nights of the week: Monday, "How the Churches Are Sending People to Hell;" Tuesday, "If You But Knew;" Wednesday, "How Do You Know?" Thursday, "Are There Any Christians Outside the Churches?"

Notes and Personal.

Members of Tsuneo Hashi Taki Knit-embroidery club, will meet this afternoon with Miss Hazel Boast at her home, 802 North Jackson street.

Use Monarch Face Lotion, the great skin beautifier.—Adv.

William Cowdrey, of 1319 North Jackson street, will return to his home this week from Stormont hospital, where he has been confined since he was shot by two Mexicans last week. Mr. Cowdrey is a Rock Island detective.

Harry Logan left Monday night for Oklahoma, where he will attempt to secure a place in the Navy. He resides in various parts of the country and Mr. Logan was elected by them to direct a division of the property. He will be gone several days.

SANTA FE NOTES.

[Items for this department may be phoned to 5015 or State Journal office.]

The marriage of Mrs. Jeanette Pringle and Mr. Harry Paul French took place Monday morning. Mr. French is a Santa Fe engineer on freight trains Nos. 29 and 30 between Emporia and St. Joseph, Mo. and Mrs. French left immediately after the wedding for San Francisco and other points in the west.

H. E. Ray, division store keeper for the Santa Fe, and Mrs. Ray have returned from a trip to Galveston, Tex. Engineer Frank Randlett has returned to Lawrence, after spending a few days here with relatives.

The social room of the R. R. Y. M. C. A. opened last Saturday evening, and the new games are proving popular with the patrons.

The bible class this noon at the Santa Fe new mill will be directed by Rev. H. Crockett and in the old mill by Rev. J. K. Young.

H. M. Bukey, formerly chief clerk to W. J. Black, passing traffic manager of the Santa Fe at Chicago, has been made assistant general passenger agent with headquarters at Chicago.

Virgil Lawrence, statistician in the office of General Superintendent R. J. Parker, went to Ann Arbor, Mich., Sunday night, where he will read today a paper on "Railway Accounting" before a class in economics at the University of Michigan.

The officers and employees at the R. R. Y. M. C. A. will have their bible class meeting this afternoon at four o'clock with the general secretary, T. E. Prout, in charge.

Monarch Preparations sold everywhere.—Adv.

Machinist George Weaver, Mrs. Weaver and family have returned from the Luenberger ranch, west of town, where they spent the weekend. The members of the Ladies' society to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. R. Hoover.

The Lady—"Are you fond of lobster salad, doctor?" "No, I'm not." "I'm fond of it, but I'm very grateful to it."—Life.
